

Sarah Luella Winterton Walker

Sarah Luella Winterton Walker of Woodland, Utah was taken home to the loving care of her Heavenly Father October 18, 1992 after a courageous struggle with cancer. She will be greatly missed and will be remembered as a loving grandmother, sister, neighbor, and friend.

She was born December 7, 1910 in Charleston, Utah to Hyrum Shurtiff and Sarah Van Waggoner Winterton. She married Clarence La Mont Walker in the Salt Lake LDS Temple on October 19, 1931. He passed away October 14, 1971.

Luella attended schools in Wasatch and Summit counties, graduating from South Summit High School. She will be remembered affectionately as co-owner with her husband La Mont, of the Woodland Cash Store, Woodland, Utah.

She managed the store alone after her husband's death until at age 76 it was sold because of illness. She was an independent, hard-working, caring and compassionate woman, who gave much of her time and energy in behalf of her family, church and community. Luella was blessed with an uncanny ear and love of music and although without any formal training she unselfishly shared, she played piano and saxophone many years in orchestras. In her late years she recorded at the piano more than 50 songs from her past and gave more than 100 recordings to numerous old friends and neighbors who enjoyed and were comforted by them.

She was a stalwart in the Woodland LDS Ward and South Summit Stake where she resided, having served as a counselor in ward and stake Relief Society presidencies, then later as Relief Society president. She was instrumental in running the welfare cannery in Kanamas and was a representative to the Regional Welfare Committee. She was a great support to her husband when he served as bishop and counselor in the Woodland Ward for many years. Her sense of humor and generous ways will be missed by all who came to know and love her.

She is survived by two sons and one daughter: Lowell W. and wife Helen of Salt Lake City; Darrell W. and wife Ver Non Saram of Salt Lake City; Mrs. Ver Non (Monta Lou) Frazier of Spanish Fork; 20 grandchildren; 48 great-grandchildren; brothers: Van D. Winterton and Omni O. Winterton, both of Roosevelt, Utah; Ralph D. Winterton of Woodland, Utah; sisters: Mrs. Vern (Ruth) Huff of Woodland, Utah; Mrs. Eva Kohkonen and Mrs. Malin D (Stella) Lewis, both of Salt Lake City.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Woodland Ward Chapel. Friends may call at the Crandall Funeral Home, Kanamas, Utah Wednesday from 6 to 8 p.m. and at the ward chapel Thursday one hour prior to services. Burial will be in the Charleston Cemetery.
